CLOTHES FOR VETERANS
One of the problems that plague nearly every returning veteran is that of finding clothes to wear. A year or two or three in uniform has done strange and wonderful things to the physique of 10,000,000 men. Shoulders have broadened, chests have lifted, waists have expanded or contracted, necks are a different size. Few men will fit into the clothes they left behind and, as a result, most are compelled to buy a whole new wardrobe.

This is a tough assignment for the veterans at a time when men's suits, shirts, shorts and overcoats are all hard to find. To help them out the Civilian Production Administration has asked all retail merchants to set aside supplies of scarce clothing for exclusive sale to veterans.

The reasons for giving the returning veterans preference are too clear cut to be ignored. They would deserve first consideration in any case as veterans and their need of clothing is far greater, on the average, than that of civilians who stayed at home. And, since the veterans of today are the customers of tomorrow, it is also good business to make a special effort to supply their needs.

Only a major expansion of clothing stocks will really solve the problem. But, in the meantime, the CPA's plan, if followed generally, will help the veterans to fill his immediate needs.

NOT THE R. A. F.

Now that war press censorship has been largely lifted, war correspondents are telling their censorship stories. They obeyed the rules, but sometimes the rules were hard to understand. In his book, "The World Is Their Beat," J. C. Oestreicher, I. N. S. foreign editor, explains the mystery of the Irish brick.

The story, which the British censor killed, was that an Irish bombardier in the Royal Air Force carried on each mission a brick tied in green ribbon. After he had released his bomb load, with devastating effect, on a German city, he would drop the brick with a prayer that it might conk Goebbels or Hitler. American correspondents thought that the story had an element of humor in it which might afford a war-weary world a moment of relief, but the London censor killed the yarn.

In due time the official responsible for the suppression made his explanation to the protesting American correspondent. "Why, my dear fellow, old boy," he said, "you must surely understand that the Royal Air Force does not—simply does not—throw things."

The late war may yet produce further evidence to show that men do not apply for a job as censor—the job must be thrust upon them.

SUPER-INFLATION

Neither gold nor any other article of true economic value is behind that money. Take out the bills in your wallet and look at them. Some will be silver certificates; these certify that a dollar's worth of silver is on deposit at the Treasury, "payable on demand." Disregard these, for silver certificates are only a small part of the total currency.

Look for a Federal Reserve Note. What does it say is on deposit as security for it? Nothing. Instead, it says only that the Treasury will redeem it on demand. It is not money at all, in the sense either of having true value of its own, or of having a dollar's worth of valuable commodities for which the Treasury will exchange it.

It is merely a promissory note. How have they been issued? The Federal Reserve system puts them out as part of the machinery by which the national debt is floated.

That is why they are, in cold fact, evidences of the national debt—not of the national credit. President Truman boldly plans to "balance the budget" by issuing nearly twenty-three billion dollars worth more than now are in circulation.

Some of this "money" would go to foreign nations asking loans, most would be expended directly by the government in domestic transactions.

All of it, in the end, would become part of the circulating currency of the United States.

What would be the effect of this issue on money values, prices, wages, savings and property?

The effect would be directly inflationary, for the very simple reason that the amount of currency would be increased without any corresponding increase either in total national assets or in Treasury reserves.

How much inflation would this step involve? That again is easy to figure. The present amount of currency in the United States is estimated at about thirty-two billions of dollars.

Simple calculations show that the inflation would be 70 per cent, and that the new dollars would be worth 58 per cent of the present dollar values.

Estimating the present dollars as being worth 25 cents on the basis of the dollar when the Republicans surrendered national control, the new dollars would be worth fourteen and one-half cents.

By so brazen a venture into further inflation, President Truman boldly bids for continued right to spend the revenues and resources of this nation prodigally and recklessly—a total for the single coming year of more than eight times any normal pre-war budget.

President Truman himself may not be enough of an economist to understand the full impact of what he proposes.

If the nation is to be saved from bankruptcy, ruin and disaster, he must be prevented by Congress—and Congress can stop this wholesale inflation only with the determined backing of the American people.

This scheme is hidden under a veritable avalanche of words—25,000 of them; the most voluminous such message ever submitted to Congress. It is further disguised by hypocritical remarks many times repeated warning against the dangers of inflation and the need for holding the line against rising prices.

But the facts are there, for anyone who wishes to verify.

Never was a more important issue laid before the American people.

Do YOU want super-inflation?

The Great Game of Politics

cal proclamations. Most of those who sponsor them do so either for political or publicity purposes. In both parties they represent a small, though extremely visible minority. It is a game of false pretense, the success of which, now that Mr. Roosevelt has gone, is almost wholly due to the skill with which they use the regular publicity channels of press and radio for their propaganda.

IT IS a situation that ought to be far more widely understood. That would cure it. The "liberals" are, of course, unable to control either party convention. But they have a sufficient voting and vocal strength to make either party afraid to go frankly conservative. Thus, the country is deprived of the clean-cut choice to which it is entitled between conservatives and liberals. The result is that in 1948 both candidates and platforms again will represent compromises. And both parties will go into the campaign with conservatives and liberals under the same banners. On the very day of Mr. Hannegan's most recent eulogy of the Democratic party as "liberal," a Democratic Representative from Maryland, Mr. Street Baldwin, declared that in Washington he has seen "absorbed into the Democratic party Communists traveling under the guise of democracy." "We of the Democratic party," he continued, "have got to put aside some of the things these people are trying to bring into our party."

"A LABOR union like the CIO with its PAC is accepted," he continued, "as part of the Democratic party and the party thereby assumes all the obligations that means. We cannot turn this Government over to the CIO nor allow such groups to frighten us." Contrast Mr. Hannegan's plain bid for the CIO with Mr. Baldwin's plain denunciation of the same organization the same day—and an idea of the way the two parties are split can be had. Also the reason there will be so much trimming and evasion among the gentlemen running for office this year.

Kaiser, and are giving their support to this humanitarian work.

In a letter recently written by Ian N. Gordon, field representative, and made public here, he states: "Obviously, there can be no peace among people whose bodies are not clothed and whose stomachs are empty. It is the most basic struggle of mankind to supply himself with the ordinary amenities for sustaining life, so for selfish reason too, we of America who have been least struck by the terrors of war, are most able at the present time to prevent, as individuals, the terrifying possibilities of a repetition of this most recent conflagration.

"The Victory Clothing Collection is held at the special behest of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, to raise 100,000,000 used garments . . . for the suffering nationals of the friendly nations who, warm in their faith in the United States, hold their arms outstretched for any kindness we can do. If we, as Americans fail them, we have failed one of the greatest of humanitarian needs . . .

LET YOUR HEARTS DECIDE

BY JERRY COSTELLO

A 3-year enlistment in the Regular Army now entitles American young men to a FULL COLLEGE COURSE or a Business or Trade School Education

By Act of Congress, benefits of the GI Bill of Rights are open to every qualified young man who enlists in the new Regular Army before October 6, 1946

HUNDREDS of thousands of intelligent young men finishing high school have been unable to afford a higher education. Now they can have it, free.

GREATEST EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY IN HISTORY

Under the GI Bill of Rights every young man who enlists in the Regular Army before October 6, 1946, is entitled, after discharge, to education or training in the school or college of his selection at Government expense. For a period based on the length of his service, the Government will pay his tuition, up to $500 per ordinary school year, plus $65 monthly for living expenses—$90 if he is married. After a 3-year enlistment, for example, he may have 48 months of education, with a total of $5120 paid by the Government!

Original enlistments are open to men aged 17 to 34, and may be for 1½, 2 or 3 years.

The Army itself is one of the world's best schools. Thorough training in one or more of 200 skills, trades and technical subjects is open to every soldier.

If you are 17 or over, and mentally and physically fit, you can earn while you learn in the Army. You'll get good pay, food, clothing, quarters and medical care. You'll get a 30-day paid furlough each year. If you enlist for 3 years you can choose your branch of service and your overseas theater in the Air, Ground or Service Forces.

Since the new peacetime Army will use the most modern scientific equipment, many technical grades will be open, with higher pay and rapid advancement.

KEEP HOME-CANNED VEGETABLES FROM LOSING IN APPEAL

By Sara Jane Reish
Assistant Home Economics Representative

To keep home canned vegetables from losing their appeal, serve them in different ways. Too often vegetables are heated, then buttered or served with a cream sauce. All this tastes good for a while, but too much of one thing makes it monotonous.

Until fresh vegetables are again available, it is a good idea to give the family a little variety. Canned green snap beans and tomatoes are a good combination for a different dish. Try this recipe for scalloped green snap beans:

1 quart canned snap beans
1/2 cup soft bread crumbs
1/3 cup cheese, grated
4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/4 cups tomato soup or stewed tomatoes

Boil beans 10 minutes in the liquid in which they were canned. Put beans in a shallow buttered baking dish. Cover with the tomato soup or tomatoes, sprinkle with grated cheese, then the bread crumbs which have been buttered. Bake 35 minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees Fahrenheit. Serves 6.

All vegetables, except tomatoes, canned in the boiling water bath must be boiled 10 minutes before tasting.

Other recipes and suggestions for serving canned vegetables may be had upon request. Just write or phone the Agricultural Extension office in Doylestown, Pa.

16,000-MILE JOURNEY

PHILADELPHIA (INS)—A gift from William C. Bullitt given in 1942 to his cousin, Thomas Bullitt, of Louisville, Ky., is back in Philadelphia after a journey of approximately 16,000 miles. The gift, an identification bracelet, was returned by Lt. Col. Henry K. Toenes, of Mobile, Ala., who found the bracelet on the wrist of a German prisoner during the battle of the Bulge. The bracelet, along with Bullitt's other possessions, had been lost when his jeep was captured by the Germans.

EARLY HARVEST URGED

WASHINGTON (INS)—The reserve supply of clover and legume seeds is expected to be at a low level after 1946 spring seedlings. Agricultural experts urge farmers to plan to harvest the seeds in 1946 and further advise they increase their seed yields per acre by placing colonies of bees in the field.

Philadelphia WAVE is Wed Here to J. Headley LaRue

Frances Marietta Chromey, a member of the WAVES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chromey, of Philadelphia, and Mr. J. Headley La Rue, son of Mr. and Mrs. George La Rue, of Bristol Township, were married in the presence of relatives and friends on Saturday in St. Mark's rectory.

The bride was charming in a white silk bengaline dress with short train finger-tip veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses with center of gardenia and an orchid.

Her maid of honor, Miss Murray, of Philadelphia, wore a gown of blue silk and net and carried a bouquet of red roses with a lavender orchid.

Mr. George La Rue was his brother's best man.

The bride has been serving in the WAVES for two years, and has been stationed in the navy civil service department in New York.

The groom graduated from Harrisburg Junior College. Upon entering the service he trained with the signal corps in Missouri and served 39 months in Hawaii and Okinawa. He holds the medal of honor. Upon discharge he returned to his employment with Fleetwings Division of Kaiser Cargo, Inc.

The newlyweds, after a reception at Beck's, Philadelphia, left for a short wedding journey. Upon their return they will reside at Mayfair.

STOCKPILE SHORT

AKRON, O. (INS) — The U. S. rubber stockpile at the close of 1945 was 125,000 tons — only about 35,000 tons more than at the end of 1944. This means that car owners may not be able to buy the exact size and brand of tire wanted before the end of this year.

CHICAGO (INS) — Prof. Oliver J. Lee, director of Northwestern University's Dearborn observatory, looks for a maximum number of eclipses to be played by the sun and moon in 1946. There will be half a dozen solar and lunar eclipses four of the sun and two of the moon. Four appeared in 1945, and 1944 had a minimum of two. The United States, however, will see only one of the six blackouts.

STONE'S FOUL GOAL
AT END OF GAME
WINS FOR EAGLES

Third Ward Boys Win An Upset Victory Over
Franklin A. C.

FINAL SCORE, 45 TO 44

Time Was Running Short
When Oriola Fouled
Stone, Who Scored

"B-B" Stone's foul goal in the closing seconds of the game gave Third Ward Eagles an upset victory over Franklin A. C. last night in a Bristol Youth League game on the Mutual Aid floor. The score was 45-44. It was the defeat of the season for the Franklin team and shaved its margin of first place to a full game.

The lead changed several times during the game and at the end of the third session, Franklin was ahead. But sparked by "Johnny" Rodgers, the Eagles went out in front shortly after the final period began. Rodgers deadlocked the score at 35-35 and was knocked out when he ran into a wall.

He was revived and soon scored another basket which put Franklin on the short end of a 40-38 score. But Esposito made a beautiful shot from side court and again the score was tied with two minutes left to play. "Tom" Donnelly put the Eagles ahead with a double-decker and again the score was tied with two minutes left to play. "Tom" Donnelly put the Eagles ahead with a double-decker and goals by Rodgers and McGerr gave the third warders a commanding lead until Spinelli and Barbetta tied it up with double-deckers for Franklin.

Time was running short when "Toby" Oriola fouled Stone. Stone stepped to the foul mark, knowing that everything hinged on his throw. He promptly dropped in the conversion which gave his club the triumph.

The brilliant all-around playing of Rodgers was outstanding for the winners. Rodgers scored 15 points while Gene Barbetta had 14 to lead the losing team.

In the other game played, the Third Ward Ramblers toyed with the Sports and scored an 84-57 victory.

Delasio and Constantini were the big guns in the Ramblers' win with 27 and 24 points, respectively.

BRISTOL HIGH FIVE TO MEET CATHOLICS

Bristol High will try for its fourth straight win tonight when it meets the strong Trenton Catholic five in varsity and junior varsity games on the latter's court in Trenton.

Coach Tom Campion's boys are determined to avenge the lacing given to them last season by the TC boys, who are also in the midst of a winning streak. The game will also be a barometer as to how Bristol and Morrisville shape up, as the Trenton Catholic lads rounce the Bulldogs. The Catholic boys had a hard time in beating Hamilton, while the Hamilton lads scored a close win over Bristol.

Coach Campion will not make any changes in his line-up.

New Forward Pass Rule to Hike Football Scores

By International News Service
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 22—(INS)—"High scoring games, with scores like 44-30 will be the rule instead of the exception in college football in two years," according to Head Coach Dick Harlowe of Harvard.

"You can already feel the results of the new trend in offense, by reason of the new forward pass rule, and it's only in its infancy because the kids haven't had a chance to polish off their execution," Harlowe added.

"There's more fumbling this year than usual, much more, and that means coaches have not had time to perfect their plays. And the kids who are playing the game certainly are more daring. They'll do anything, on any down, anywhere on the field.

"Take our first four games at Harvard this year. Both teams gained more ground in those four games than formerly would have been amassed in an eight-game schedule.

"You go for 70 yards, possibly, and then lose the ball on a fumble. There's so much ball handling and so many new vistas for the offense that it's going to take time to eliminate fumbling. But watch the scores mount when it is.

"The burden, the pressure on the defense will be tremendous, but I do not look for any sweeping changes made to strengthen the defense. It's pretty well established that the high scoring game is the one loved by all except the coaches.

"When the kids have improved on the leaping forward pass offense and have smoothed out some of the things in the T offense, you'll see few, if any, 2 to 0 scores.

"The fans still talk about the famous 33-33 tie between Dartmouth and Yale. That's the college football game of the future, and not the distant future either.

"A few of the fans and the coaches may die of heart failure in the high scoring games, but the majority will love it."

TOBACCO GOAL CUT

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (INS) — Records show that the present stock of burley tobacco — plus 194,000,000 pounds from the 1946 crop — will make a year's supply. So the 1946 production goal has been cut 10 per cent.
